Buddhi

•8 Mahat or Buddhi is an evolute
•9 of Prakriti, it is made of matter.

•10 But it has psychological intellectual aspect known as buddhi. Mahat or intellect •11 is a unique faculty of human beings.
It helps man in judgement and •12 discrimination. Mahat helps to distinguish between the subject & object. Man comes to understand self and non self.
Mahat by inherent association with sattva, possesses qualities like luminosity & reflectivity.

The first in the line of Purushic consciousness is buddhi. Buddhi is the finest product of prakriti. It is the link between the purusha and the other components of prakriti. When Purusha's consciousness comes in contact with buddhi, buddhi becomes purusha - incarnate or the living spirit. Buddhi plays the role of knower and inner controller. Buddhi has dual responsibility of injecting harmony into the mind - body complex and making the knowledge of truth or purusha possible.

At an individual level buddhi is the source of all inspirations
