

Industrial visits and field trips by P.G.department of home science in session 2016-2017 and 2017-2018

- ❖ Field trips were organized by h.sc department in the month of September and October 2016 under the practical course work to Bal Niketan and Old age home

- ❖ A visit was organized by the department to IIM, Canal road, Jammu to gain practical knowledge and to understand working of various instruments on 1st jan 2017.

- ❖ A visit was organized by the department to handloom weaving centre, Bhasoli, for the students of M.Sc. Textile and Apparel science, to gain practical knowledge about basic weaving processes on 2nd august 2017. Demonstrations of weaving operations being involved in the manufacture of various kinds of shawls were given by the weavers.

- ❖ Students of M.Sc Textile and Apparel Science visited Silk and Cotton Expo held in Jammu on November 2017. It was just a fabric tour of India, in which students learned about unique textiles of each state.

- ❖ A practical course visit was organized for B.Sc students to different entrepreneurs in Jammu in March 2018. Case profiling of successful entrepreneurs in Jammu, was done by the students, using SWOT analysis with respect to entrepreneurial competencies.

- ❖ Students of B.Sc. home science visited banks and different financial institutions in September 2018 to learn fundamental financial literacy skills. The students learned to open a new account, different banking conveniences and safe banking techniques.

- ❖ Regular visits were organized in the year 2016,2017, 2018 by women studies centre along with students of B.Sc Home Science to Korotana, Jammu (village adopted by women study centre) to teach women about different skills, girl child education, women health, AIDS etc. this was done through nuked natak, lectures and demonstration.

